TOWN RUINED.

Chesterfield Upset by a Fearful Explosion.

Eighty Quarts of Nitroglycerine Let Loose, Rocking Houses, Breaking Windows and Loosening Ceilings.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 26.—Chesterfield, Ind., was almost wiped off the map at an early hour this morning by the explosion of eighty quarts of nitro-glycerine, which had been brought overland from Montpelier and placed in an open field, a half mile from the town.

Marion Mansey and Sam Maguire were working at a gas well near by when the explosion occurred. Mansey was thrown fifty feet, bnt was not fatally injured. Maguire was also thrown a hundred feet in the air and badly lacerated, but will recover.

James Gold's house, 300 rods distant, was torn to pieces. The explosion tore a hole in the ground down to the water line.

A three ton engine was torn to fragments and every animal in the vicinity was killed instantly.

The little town of Chesterfield is a mass of ruins, every house being moved from its foundations, windows shattered, doors smashed in, every light put out and the plastering shaken from the walls. Several people were shaken out of bed.

At Dallsville, two miles away, and at Yorktown, five miles distant, the damage was almost as great. Many people were injured and it is a miracle that none were killed outright.

The jar of the explosion was felt for fifteen miles in all directions. The gas in the well was blown out and a workingman named Cooper in lighting it caused another explosion, in which he was fatally burned. The damage cannot be estimated.

RUMORS OF WAR.

France and Great Britain Have a Misunderstanding.

The Seat of the Trouble is West Africa Land, Whither Troops are Being Rushed.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung from Rome reports that a sanguinary conflict had taken place between the French and British at Nikki, in the Lagos Hinterland.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—While the accuracy of the statement contained in the Rome dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung, announcing that a conflict has taken place between the French and British troops in the Lagos Hinterland, is doubted, the London morning papers today pointed out the imminent danger resulting from the proximity of the two forces in the contested territory. A conflict between the French and British forces in the Lagos Hinterland has been anticipated for some time past. Both countries have been hurrying troops into the disputed territory. The trouble is of about thirty years standing. In 1870 France and Great Britain opened negotiations for the settlement of their respective frontiers in West Africa and it was decided in substance that French influence and authority should be confined to the north of a certain line and that Great Britian should have a free hand south of this line. The outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war interrupted the negotiations. There was considerable opposition in both countries to the cession of any territory and during the next five years difficulties frequently occurred. Finally it was resolved to appoint commissioners to reconsider the whole matter, and as a result in the course of the next ten years, four separate agreements were concluded.

Later in the day a rumor was received at the British colonial office to the effect that there had been a collision between the British and French forces at Nakka, which is said to have been captured by the French troops. The officials of the colonial office, however, regard this report as highly improbable as, they explain, the British police in the Hinterland, who are in various limited numbers, had strict orders to avoid any collision with the French. It is also understood that the French forces had been instructed not to come into conflict with the British. The British forces in the Hinterland, it is further stated, are being reinforced considerably.

DEBT IS $1,338,517.

Condition of Russell B. Harrison's Street Railway Enterprises.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 26.—Receiver Jump, of Russell B. Harrison's street railway and electric light company, has filed a report showing the total indebtedness to be $1,338,517, but of this amount $250,000 consists of bonds issued as 'collateral security for some of the floating indebtedness, which amounts to $325,000. The receiver has not made a report of the inventory of the property, because some of the machinery was purchased conditionally and is not fully paid for. There is also due the Terre Haute company from $5,000 to $11,000 from the Michigan City Trolley company, of which Harrison is president, for machinery and supplies taken from here. Most of the bonds are held in New York and other eastern cities.

A BRITISH MOVE.

Want to Land a Cable on the Hawaiian Islands.

Will Give Britain Control of Telegraph System Reaching Around the World --France Protests.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says:

It is the desire of the British government that the United States shall authorize a British company to land a cable on one of the Hawaiian islands, this cable to connect Canada and Austria. Such authorization is opposed by the French government, on the ground that the laying of a cable with British capital would place Great Britain in control of a telegraphic system reaching around the entire world, and that in the event of war before a message could be transmitted the British government's consent would have to be obtained. In case Great Britian were engaged in hostilities, a diplomat pointed out, it would be practically impossible for France to send a message over any cable which did not pass through British territory, except that which connects France and Cape Cod, Mass.

M. Patenotre has made a representation on the subject to Secretary Sherman, who said he did not think it would make much difference; this government could use the cable if it desired and in case of necessity an opposition line could be established. The French officials, however, point out that in case of war between the United States and Great Britain this government would find itself seriously handicapped if the cable were under British control. Information has reached here that a British company interested in the cable enterprise and the consul general of Great Britain in Honolulu are making a determined effort to secure a recommendation from the Dole authorities to the United States that the British company be allowed to land a cable.

Mr. Sewall, the diplomatic representative of this government to Hawaii, is wholly opposed to the granting of such permission on the ground that such action would be prejudicial to the interests of his government. It is impossible for the Dole authorities to give permission to lay a cable, on account of the reciprocity treaty between Hawaii and the United States.

A FRISCO MYSTERY.

Andrea Satto Has Strangely Disappeared.

Left His Wife at a Hotel Monday and Has Not Since Been Seen--Had Much Money--Murder Suspected.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Andrea Satto, car inspector of the Third Avenue street car line, of New York, arrived here last Sunday. On Monday he disappeared under circumstances that cause the police to believe that he has met with foul play. Reaching the city in company with his wife, Satto stopped on Sunday night at the Brooklyn hotel. The next afternoon the couple engaged rooms at 230 Montgomery avenue, paying for one week in advance. In paying the bill Satto took from his pocket a roll containing nearly $500, which action, it is thought, may have led up to his disappearance. Leaving his wife in the room, the inspector went out for his baggage and has not been seen since.

LOVERING GUILTY.

Finding of the Fort Sheridan Court Martial.

Will be Reprimanded by the Reviewing Authority--Leniency the Reward of a Previous Good Record.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—The Tribune today prints the following:

"The finding of the court martial is that the accused is guilty as charged in the specifications," and "that he be reprimanded by the reviewing authority. The court is thus lement in view of the good character of the accused as shown in the evidence."

The foregoing is, according to the statement of a man who knows, the exact verdict of the court martial which has just completed its labors in the case of Captain Leonard A. Lovering of Fort Sheridan, charged with brutal treatment of Private Charles Hammond. It took the court martial one hour to reach its decision. The first ballot resulted in seven members of the court martial voting "guilty" and five "not guilty."

The usual court martial is composed of thirteen members, but Major Randolph, who has been detailed to attend, was unable to do so, and so twelve men sat as a jury to decide the fate of Captain Lovering. There was a vigorous effort made to have those parts of the specifications charging Captain Lovering with "cruelty" and "brutality" stricken out, but it was finally decided to consider the charges as they were set forth in the specifications, and the decision was reached without making the changes.

A majority is conclusive in court martial findings and so, after the fact of guilt was established the only thing to be considered was measure of punishment. The officers had made up their minds that Hammond's career as a soldier was not creditable, and this weighed strongly in bringing them to an agreement as to the punishment to be meted out to Lovering. The evidence showed showed that Captain Lovering had been connected with the United States military service for twenty-five years and that his record had been a good one. A number of the officers came out plainly and said they would not vote for a finding of guilty if Captain Lovering was to be given a humiliating punishment.

It was argued that Hammond's record, when placed by the side of Captain Lovering's, was of such a character as unavoidably to gain some sympathy from the court for the officer. The finding of a court martial is secret, under a solemn oath. The members of the court are sworn not to divulge the finding or discuss it until it has reached the proper authority, which in this case is President McKinley.

The Lovering court matial is the result of a direct order issued by the president and he will be the reviewing officer in the case unless he surrenders the responsibility to General Alger, secretory of war. Lieutenant Colonel Hunter, judge advocate of the court, will have his record completed today, and this, with the finding, will be forwarded to Washington tonight. It will probably be placed in the hands of the president on Monday, and after its inspection by General Alger and General Miles, the finding will be given out officially.

The public announcement will probably be made by Thursday of next week. It is, of course, known that the president may change the sentence recommended by the court martial.

AIRSHIP FOR KLONDIKE.

Vessel Now Under Construction--Propelled by a Naphtha Engine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Hiram S. Maxim, superintendent of construction of the Atlantic and Pacific Aerial Navigation company, announces that the company now has in course of construction an airship in which it is expected to make the trip to Klondike. He said:

"When everything necessary is on board the ship will weigh 5,000 pounds, and we shall take on board about one ton's weight of passengers and provisions. The dimensions of the vessel will be: Cylinder, 38 feet 2 inches in diameter and 90 feet in length; length of forward cone, 50 feet; length of after cone, 45 feet; total length, 158 feet. The space occupied will be 106,000 cubic feet. The propelling power will be a sixteen-horse power naphtha engine, which will be made of aluminum as far as that metal can be used, and will weigh complete 900 pounds. The gasoline will be stored in tanks in the cases, which will contain sufficient quantity to drive the vessel around the earth without replenishing the tanks. The skin of the ship will be double and the intermediate space will be filled with hydrogen gas. This gas will be confined in separate compartments and will be in the upper part of the cylinder and in the cones. We expect to attain a speed of 100 miles an hour without straining our vessel."

When finished it is estimated that the ship will cost $15,000.

A COMPACT SIGNED.

Chinese Merchants of San Francisco Will Suppress Highbinders.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—The Chronicle says the Chinese merchants of this city have combined to suppress the murderous highbinder societies. These business men have signed a compact not to submit to further blackmail, and without their usual income the highbinders will be forced to leave the city or go to work. Over twenty highbinder societies are affected by this arrangement. While the exact membership of these societies is not known, it is expected to be in the neighborhood of 81,000. All of these are not fighting men, but they have been affiliated with the Tongs and have been furnished money when occasion demanded.

ROTHSCHILDS

Are Preparing to Enter the Alaskan Trade.

Four Steamers are Being Built in Sections to be Sent to Dutch Harbor--Will Establish Trading Stations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—The Rothschilds, through the San Francisco house of Liebes & Co., are about to enter the Alaska trade. Four steamers are being built in sections by W. H. Brick & Co., the owners of the California Machine works. When this contract is fulfilled the machinery and timbers will be sent to Dutch harbor, near Unalaska, to be set up. The firm will then build nine barges in sections to follow the material for steamboat building and the barges will likewise be put together at Dutch Harbor. All of this work is being done for the Alaska Exploration company, which was incorporated about four months ago with a capital of $1,000,000. Isaac Liebes, in speaking of this project said that it is proposed to have the steamers and barges ready for business when the ice breaks in the Yukon in June. He said that the Rothschilds are interest in the venture, which was arranged in London five months ago, and there is practically unlimited capital behind it. Besides doing a general transportation business, the company will establish trading stations and thoroughly explore the country.

DOLLAR WHEAT.

The Bulge Only Temporary and Local in Effect.

Day Was Short and to Cover He Bid in 250,000 Bushels at the Advance Figure.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Wheat sold at $1 about 11:30 today. A bulge started in that option about 10 o'clock which carried it up steadily to $1. It was current talk in the pit that the covering which started the bulge was done by a small bunch of small shorts, as traders known to have out several lines showed no signs of stampeding. The immediate cause of the jump to $1 was the buying of about 250,000 bushels by Counselman & L. Day. After that price was reached, however, the market dropped back very quickly to 97⅞c, but another spasm of covering sent it up again to 98⅞c. December bulls sold heavily on the swell.

AMONG THE LODGES.

Convention of the American Sons of Columbus at Keokuk.

Daughters of Pocahontas to Give an Entertainment--News in Various Fraternities Given in Spicy Style.

The American Sons of Columbus, which had its birth in this city, recently held a national convention at Keokuk, Iowa, in conjunction with the American Daughters of Isabella. In an exhaustive account of the event the Daily Constitution-Democrat, of Keokuk, says:

"The special meeting of the national officers and delegates of the American Sons of Columbus and the Daughters of Isabella, the auxiliary order, is at an end, and those who attended the sessions have gone home or are preparing to do so.

"The meeting, according to one high in authority among the Sons, has been the most important in the history of the order. A number of very essential changes have been made in the constitution, which have put the organization on a firmer and yet more progressive business basis. The reports of the officers and the committees showed fair progress during the past year. But these did not wholly satisfy the men who have the good of the order at heart.

"Accordingly plans for the betterment of the order were discussed and the action of this meeting was the result.

"One of the changes provides for a corps of organizers, who will work under the personal supervision of the grand admiral. These will go out from every colony and the system will insure the rapid growth of the order.

"The working laws of the constitution have been so arranged that they apply more particularly than before to the local colonies, thus doing away almost altogether with local by-laws.

"The grand officers, by another change, are to become incumbent at once after election. The date of the annual convention was changed from October to June.

"Under these changes and with the new system," said the officer of the order who explained the situation for the Constitution-Democrat, 'the prospects are that the Sons of Columbus will become a banner order of its class. The perfect harmony with which the convention acted is remarkable, every member working for the good of the order alone.'

"The delegates tendered a vote of thanks to the Keokuk colony and court and the press for the reception and kind attention tendered them.

"The meetings of the daughters of Isabella were no less important. Several changes in the constitution were made, which the experience of the past few years of its history have shown to be necessary for its good. Several grievances were satisfactorily adjusted, and the work of the next year for the advancement of the order was outlined. The reports showed a good growth and bright prospects for the future. The auxiliary order, too, is now on a firmer basis and will doubtless grow and prosper.

"The following officers were elected to serve until their successors are qualified: Frank W. Irwin, of Fort Wayne, Ind., grand admiral; A. J. Kanne, of Peoria, Ill; vice grand admiral; Frank O. Ehinger, of Fort Wayne, Ind., grand secretary; Eu-

SUGAR BEETS.

Stark County Product Tests 29.9 Per Cent. of Sweetness.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov 26.—The government experiment station at Purdue university has found at Hamlet, Stark county, a sugar beet raised from seed and under working directions furnished by the station, which yielded 29.9 per cent. of sugar and had a purity co-efficient of 81.5. This is the best sugar beet ever raised in Indiana. The yield to an acre of washed and trimmed beets was fourteen tons.

IT WAS EASY.

Fort Wayne Ends the Season With a Victory.

Rain and Mud Had No Terrors for Foot Ball Players--Shamrocks Beat the Emmetts--Sentinel Boys Win.

Thanksgiving day is the accepted time to wind up foot ball playing. So thought the players in Fort Wayne when they repaired to Lakeside park in a drizzling rain yesterday afternoon, followed by a large crowd of enthusiastic "fans." There was mud and plenty of it, but it was soft and acted as a cushion for the players and probably saved some of them from being maimed for life.

The Huntington team outweighs the home players, but Johnson's eleven proved to be the more scientific.

Fort Wayne kicked off to Cast, who was downed in five yards. Fort Wayne took the ball an advanced it steadily into Huntington's home territory. Fleming made a superb dive, and scored a touchdown. No goal. Score, 4 to 0.

Huntington kicked off to Fleming, who made a run of fifteen yards. Steady avances were again made in Huntington territory, and the ball was carried over the goal line. Bradley kicked goal. Score, 10 to 0.

Cast took the ball from Fleming, and got over the goal line. It was a fluke, and should not have been allowed, but Huntington threatened to leave, so the touchdown was counted. No goal. Score, 10 to 4.

SECOND HALF.

Huntington kicked off, and after some pointless playing the sphere was punted back, and then steadily advanced towards Huntington's goal line. Near the end of the half, after some slow work, Hess made a run around the right end and went down. Fleming took the ball across line for a touchdown. Bradley kicked goal. Score, 16 to 4.

SHAMROCKS, 6; ROBERT EMMETTS, 0.

The Shamrocks and Robert Emmetts indulged in a rattling mix-up. The game was played under the Gaelic Athletic association rules. Ed Cleary captained the Emmets, and on his team were athletes who had played the Irish game in many a stubbornly contested battle. The Shamrocks were composed almost exclusively of members of the Hibernian Rifles, and were under the captaincy of Con Donchy. Two exciting one-half hour halfs were played. Moran, for the Shamrocks, played a great game, scoring five of the six points made by his team, Ed Ryan making the other point. The work of Hogan, Duffy, Muldoon and Graney, for the Shamrocks, was fast. For the Robert Emmetts Ed Cleary, D. Cleary, Owen Cummings and J. Foley put up the best game. The Shamrocks won the game by good sprinting. Both teams are anxious for another go at each other, and a game will probably be pulled off in the near future.

SENTINEL BOYS WIN.

THE SENTINEL carriers defeated the High School Freshmen yesterday morning in a game of foot ball by a score of 20 to 0. The features of the game were the fine playing of E. Wellman and T. Kavanaugh back of the line.

SLAVE TO DRINK.

Mrs. Reynolds in Court Under an Assumed Name.

Sad Example of the Ruin Wrought by Rum --Tramp Jumper Held on Suspicion--Other Police News.

A woman answering to the name of Maud Wilson was arraigned before Mayor Scherer this morning for intoxication. Officer Paul testified that she was helplessly drunk when he was summoned to where she was lying on the sidewalk on West Berry street, near Calhoun, yesterday. She pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs. The court pited the woman but as it was her second offense he could not pass the case by. This is indeed a sad example of the wretchedness brought on by rum, for here is a woman against whom the officers have no hard report save her weakness for drink. After imbibing a few drinks she becomes utterly helpless. The mayor was informed that the woman's right name is Mrs. Reynolds and that she lives on Force street. Her husband is living but he did not appear in his wife's behalf this morning and she left with an officer to try and raise the money to pay her fine as the horrors of a jail seemed more than she could face.

HELD ON SUSPICION.

Andrew Jones, a youth just developing into tough manhood, was arrested by Pennsylvania Detective Borgman, at the east yards, this morning. He was discovered in a car of merchandise that had been broken into, and, although no goods are reported missing, he is thought to be guilty of evil intent. He told an unlikely story to the mayor of his past life and was sent to jail, pending an investigation.

NOTES.

FATAL FALL.

Walter Hess, of This City, Meets Death at Omaha.

Police Endeavoring to Locate His Relatives --Mrs. J. H. Kinkead Injured-- Chapter of Accidents.

Superintendent of Police Gorsline this morning received a telegram stating that Walter Hess, of Fort Wayne, while working on a high building, went down with a scaffold and received fatal injuries. The telegram stated that the man was dying and asked that relatives, who lived in South Wayne, be notified. The directory failed to enlighten the superintendent, and he reported the matter to the various policemen, instructing them to inquire after anybody of that name.

A LADY INJURED.

Mrs. Joel H. Kinkead, of No. 79 West Third street, fell on the garden walk at her home Wednesday evening and sustained severe injuries. Her left knee came in contact with the sharp edge of a brick, displacing the knee cap and lacerating the flesh badly. She is unable to walk.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Henry Schwartz, a student of the Concordia college, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. He was coming down one of the stairs in the college building, when he slipped and fell headlong down the entire flight of stairs. He was picked up unconscious with a deep gash in his forehead, from which the blood flowed freely. Dr. H. A. Duemling was called and sewed up the wound. He pronounced the injury painful, though not dangerous to the young man's life.

Three Nights' Festival at St Paul's Church.

Several Contests Started and a Lively Interest Shown in the Event-- Good Music.

Last evening a three nights' fair and festival was inaugurated at St. Paul's Catholic church. The booths have been handsomely decorated and there are many things to admire. The young ladies are working hard for the success of the fair, and their efforts are being rewarded. Several contests have been started, all of which command a lively interest. Excellent music is in attendance.

THE A. O. U. W. FAIR.

A Very Large Crowd Present Last Evening--The Contests.

Interest grows in the A. O. U. W. fair, at the White bank hall. The attendance last night was the largest since the opening, notwithstanding the bad weather. The features were attractive and all enjoyed themselves. A novel feature was the cake walk, in which twenty-five persons participated and in which Norton Conover was victorious. Another contest will occur tonight.

The voting contests are very spirited, especially the ones for the buggy, the bicycle and the parlor cabinet. In the buggy contest is entered Coony Bayer, whose friends are legion, and George F. Sorge, of Wells street, who has a very extended acquaintance. They are both out to win and the race will be a pretty one. For the bicycle there are so far entered Misses Flora Higgins, Anna Kemp and Anna Block. Their friends are all hard at work and will do their best. For the parlor cabinet the contestants are Miss Jennie Polkey and Mrs. Del Sthair and the contest will be exciting, for the contestants are both well known.

Miss Bertha Peckham held the winning admission coupon and was given a handsome picture.

The Filmore quartet, composed of Messrs. Harry B. Menefee, Jesse Bercley, Albert Crawford and J. D. Dull, were present again and surprised all by the manner in which they rendered several selections.

Special attractions will be prepared for both tonight and tomorrow night by the management.

DEMAND FOR $10,000.

Christie Damage Suit Against the City on Trial.

Is the Second of the Lakeside Cases--Toll Road Appraisers Meet--The Court News.

This morning in the superior court the damage suit of Annora F. Christie against the city of Fort Wayne for $10,000 was called. This is the second of the suits growing out of the accident in Lakeside last summer whereby four men employed by the waterworks department lost their lives by the caving in of a trench. The plaintiff is represented by the Leonard brothers, attorneys, and the city by City Attorney Shambaugh and Attorney Henry Colerick. Mrs. Christie's husband was killed in the accident and this is the basis of the suit. In the first of the suits tried Mrs. Catherine Dennis was awarded $2,300 by the jury.

APPRAISERS QUALIFY.

This morning Messrs. Herman Schmelker, H. C. Rockhill and B. F. McQuiston, appointed to appraise the value of the Fort Wayne and Little River toll road, met at the court house and qualified for their duties. They took possession of the survey made two years ago together with the books of the company and proceeded at once to make an examination of them. It was the intention to inspect the road this afternoon if the weather permitted. It is believed that the appraisers will be re ready to make a report in the early part of the coming week.

OTHER COURT NEWS.

These judgments have been rendered in the superior court: Morgan & Wright, vs. Benjamin and George Marriotte, $98.25 for plaintiff; Mary Brames vs. John Wilkinson, $187.24 for plaintiff.

In the case of John N. Pfeiffer against Susie A. Ayres, the jury in the superior court rendered a verdict for $1,154.17. The contention was about a piece of property in South Wayne.

In the case of Ella Dilavou against Chas. D. Porter et al., brought to this county on a change of venue from Jay, the circuit court jury returned a verdict for $525 against David W. Haskell, for $525 against Frank Haskell, and $1,050 against Chas. D. Porter.

Catarrh

Mrs. Josephine Pollhill, of Due West, S. C., had a severe case of catarrh, which finally became so deep-seated that she was entirely deaf in one ear, and part of the bone in her nose sloughed off. The best physicians treated her in vain, and she used various applications of sprays and washes to no avail. Fourteen bottles of S. S. S. promptly reached the seat of the disease, and cured her sound and well.

THE Austrian reichsrath seems to have absorbed a deal of inspiration from the game of foot ball as it is played in America.

THERE is no higher authority upon the necessity of a curfew law than the police of Fort Wayne. To a man they will subscribe to the moral benefits of such a measure.

D. O. MILLS, who has become famous by building a hotel in New York where a clean room and a good bath may be had for twenty cents, is the father-in-law of Whitelaw Reid and came to New York some years ago from San Francisco.

THE man who is making such an ado over the attempt of a Pullman car porter to hold him up writes himself down as having never before taken a ride in a Pullman. He should be advised that he has had no uncommon experience with the autocrat of the railway sleeper.

LEWIS DOUGLAS, of Washington, has presented a life-sized portrait of his father, Frederick Douglas, to the Bowdoin Grammar School for Girls in Boston, and it has been hung in the main school room. It is said to be the first portrait of an American negro ever hung in a school house in the north.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN once received a letter asking for a "sentiment" and his autograph. He replied: "Dear Madam: When you ask from a stranger that which is of interest only to yourself, always enclose a stamp. There's your sentiment, and here's my autograph.—A. Lincoln."

THE discovery has just been made that through an innocent looking amendment passed by the republican legislature last winter the anti-trust law of Illinois has been practically annulled. To anyone who watched the course of the Illinois assembly this will be the source of no surprise.

GOVERNOR DESHA, of Kentucky, more than a half century ago had a wild son who was convicted of murder in that state. The governor promptly pardoned his son and he disappeared. That son is now the most eloquent preacher in the Hawaiian Islands. He knows the language perfectly and his greatest sermons are preached in it.

PROF. THEODORE MOMMSEN is credited with bringing about much of the recent troubles in Austro-Hungary by his fiery writings. He is eighty years of age and of a very diminutive size. In 1870 he was known, for his hatred of France, as the "Franzosen-fresser," or eater of Frenchmen. His hate of Bismarck is a religion with him, and he once challenged the "Iron Chancellor" to mortal combat on the field of honor.

AMERICAN insurance companies seem to have been the heaviest sufferers by the recent fires in London and Melbourne. This is complimentary to the enterprise of the American corporations and shows the confidence reposed in them by their foreign patrons. But if American companies issue policies in foreign countries, they ought to insist on American methods in handling fires. Just at present British fire departments seem to be far behind the times.

AS THE time for assembling congress approaches the clearer it becomes that there is to be a republican assault all along the line on the civil service laws. From all that appears the foes of the law are well organized and embrace in their ranks some of the ablest of the republican leaders. There is some fear by the opponents of the law that the democrats will unite with the republican friends of the merit system and defeat the plans of the spoilmen by preventing any action on the subject. With this possibility in view a caucus of the republicans will be called and an attempt made to commit the entire republican side of the house to the scheme by strict rules of party procedure.

VENEZUELA is intent upon making the most of its natural resources. Within the last few weeks many concessions have been made to American capitalists to work mines, asphalt deposits and lumber tracts, and if this sort of thing continues it will not be long before Americans will virtually control the country. Such a result would be the best thing that could possibly happen to the Venezuelans. They are not possessed of sufficient enterprise to make the most of their endowments, and Yankee hustlers are needed to turn the wealth into cold cash.

SIR BOYLE ROCHE is best known to fame as the man who smelt a rat, saw him floating in the air and nipped him in the bud, but a writer in the current Cornhill has unearthed some less familar bulls from the same eminent source. For example, discoursing on the relations between England and Ireland, Sir Boyle declared that "he is an enemy to both kingdoms who wishes to diminish the brotherly affections of the two sister countries." This is, however, no better than the benevolent wish of the governor of Georgia in his speech at the last Atlanta exposition, that the occasion might be an entering wedge which would bring about a more perfect unity between north and south.

UNITED STATES INDIAN AGENT WISDOM and Judge William M. Springer, of Muscogee, have decided upon a plan to suppress the liquor traffic in the Indian territory, which is believed to be the only practical solution of the question. The Indian policemen have been instructed to arrest not only all persons found dispensing intoxicating liquors in the Indian territory, but all persons who are found intoxicated or in possession of intoxicating liquors, and turn such persons over to the United States marshals, to be dealt with according to law. Judge Springer has ruled that any persons thus arrested will be required to tell from whom they purchased the liquors, under penalty of being declared in contempt of court if they refuse to do so, and as the liquor law in force in the Indian territory presumes that all persons found in possession of liquor introduced the same, such parties will be required to prove from whom they purchased the liquors or suffer the penalty for introducing the same, which is not less than sixty days in the jail and $100 fine. It is believed that this will do away with bootlegging in the Indian territory.

ACCUSES PULLMAN PORTER.

A. R. Hill, a Broker, Says Lee Pitts Tried to Steal $42,000.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—Lee Pitts, a negro Pullman porter, living in this city, is a prisoner at the four courts on the charge of attempted robbery. A. R. Hill, a broker, of Providence, R. I., alleges that Pitts tried to steal from his pocket an envelope containing $39,000 in certified checks and $3,000 in cash. Broker Hill was a passenger on the Baltimore and Ohio train which arrived in St. Louis from the east yesterday. As soon as the train reached the union station he caused the arrest of Pitts. At the four courts Mr. Hill related this story:

"Just after the train passed Odin, Ill., yesterday morning the porter pulled the curtains aside and reached into my birth. He took $10 out of my trousers pockets and then thrust his hand into my inside coat pocket, where I had an envelope containing $42,000 in cash and checks. I awoke just in time to save the envelope. I grappled with the negro, and the encounter attracted the attention of the Pullman conductor, J. B. Hodges. He ordered the negro to return the $10 he had taken."

Mr. Hill is the owner of several lead and zinc mines at Joplin, and he is on his way there. He says he will remain in St. Louis long enough to push the prosecution.

ORDER OF RED CROSS.

The Order of the Red Cross meets regularly every Saturday night in A. O. U. W. hall, corner Calhoun and Superior streets. The members are meeting with great encouragement for their farther success during the coming winter. The probabilities are that they will have initiatory work every meeting in the near future and all the members are requested to be in attendance at our next meeting as several applications are to be acted upon. The faithful workers begin to feel that they have not labored in vain for success will be theirs. The instructions the newly made members receive when taking the obligation are elevating and ennobling in all their requirements. They teach remembrance of the widow and orphan, the afflicted and unoccupied; also teach the uplifting of all mankind who have fallen the victims of evil. The brotherhood and sisterhood of man should be more rigidly enforced that we could be more on an equality in this life, as in the life to come. Be as a union in all our good works.

Officers for the ensuing year were put in nomination and the election will take place on Sunday, Dec. 19. This lodge is making preparations now to entertain the district grand lodge, which will meet here in May next. This grand lodge meeting here will be the most important event in the history of this lodge, as it will bring here not only the delegates from the different lodges of this district, but also some of the brightest lights of Judaism of America.

K. OF P.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 116, K. of P., had a most interesting and well-attended meeting last Tuesday evening. Matters of great importance to the lodge came up for action and the discussion was participated in by many of the members and also the visiting brothers. As soon as the new elevator will be in running order, which is expected to be about the 15th of next month, a lively time is anticipated for Fort Wayne lodge, No. 116. A number of candidates are expected to be initiated into the ranks of Knighthood, also some entertainments and banquets are on the program. All of our members are invited to attend Phoenix lodge, No. 101, next Monday evening, when our brother, Hon. James M. Robinson, will deliver an address on "Perfection."

FRATERNAL MYSTIC CIRCLE.

The National Fraternal congress is composed of delegates from almost all of what are termed the beneficial orders of America. Its usefulness has been fully demonstrated in procuring proper legislation in most of the states for the government of such orders and in gathering and presenting statistics as well as determining what is the best basis for their perpetuity. The interest and attendance has never been greater than during the past three years. The future sessions will, beyond doubt, prove most helpful to the cause of fraternalism throughout the country.

The Fraternal Mystic Circle, years ago, became a member of the congress, and Mr. D. E. Stevens has attended each session as one of its representatives. For many years he has been a member of the committee on statistics, which is one of the most important committees of the congress, which has done so much for the education of the members of the different orders as to the requirements for safety and permancy.

The election of Mr. Stevens to the office of vice president will therefore prove most gratifying to his host of friends. This election, according to precedent, will make him president of the congress next year.

The local branch of the Fraternal Mystic Circle, known as Fort Wayne ruling No. 552, will in the near future extend an urgent invitation to Mr. Stevens to deliver an address to the members of the beneficial orders in the city of Fort Wayne. Mr. Stevens is one of the best posted men on fraternal life insurance in the country and the leaders of the various orders have time and again acknowledged him as authority on matters pertaining to such.

Inasmuch as the subject of this sketch is a very busy man, being much in demand, our ruling will be extremely fortunate if we can induce him to come here. Our main hope lies in the fact that he has frequently expressed a little partiality for Fort Wayne ruling.

A HEALTHY WIFE

Is a Husbands Inspiration.

A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home.

I sometimes marvel at the patience of some husbands.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging and that everything tires her, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams, and that she often wakes suddenly in the night with a feeling of suffocation and alarm, she must at once regain her strength.

It matters not where she lives, she can write a letter. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will reply promptly and without charge. The following shows the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, accompanied with a letter of advice:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped. I am now gaining strength and flesh and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you."—Mrs. F. S. BENNETT, Westphalia, Kans.

HE WAS THE PUBLIC.

Old Jim Cooper and His Importance on Stag River.

When the train reached Valley City, which consisted of a single house and a shanty d pot, we saw a man mounted on a barrel under a tree and evidently making an address to a man sitting on the ground before him. The address was concluded as we drew up, and a moment later the orator boarded the train. Some one asked him what sort of a performance had been going on and he replied:

"Why, I came over here to address the people of Cooper county on the benefits of opening up the Stag river to navigation and have been speaking for the last two hours."

"But we didn't see any crowd around."

"No, you didn't. No, this isn't much of a county for a crowd. You saw the man on the grass, didn't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, he was all the crowd, and the way he took me by the hand and praised my humble effort makes me feel proud. He said it was the best speech of the kind he ever listened to."

"You don't mean to say you got off a two hour speech to that one man, and he an old duffer at that!" exclaimed one of the crowd.

"That's what I did, sir," replied the orator, "and I think I carried my point. Yes, I think he will help Davis county to get the Stag river opened to navigation."

"But what can one man do?"

"One man? Why, that's old Jim Cooper, after whom the county was named."

"Well."

"Well, he's the only man in the county. He owns every foot of the land and 20 miles of the river. What he says goes. I called a public meeting, assembled him, addressed him and convinced him, and if Stag river isn't opened to navigation before snow flies then I'm no prophet."—M. QUAD.

BOAT BLOCKED A RIVER.

A Big Steamer Made Trouble in a Chicago Waterway.

A block in the Chicago river was caused recently by the steamer City of Bangor, which was starting out for Buffalo with a cargo of 168,000 bushels of corn. This is one of the largest boats which come into the river, being 385 feet long and 45 feet beam and drawing 18 feet 4 inches aft and 17 feet 1 inch forward with its big cargo, so that its keel was in the mud nearly all the time.

The vessel grounded opposite Polk street for four hours, keeping the bridge open all that time, and then it grounded over the Washington street tunnel. The Washington street bridge was swung between the masts, so that traffic was carried on until the tugs got the vessel off, but in opening the bridge the floor jammed on the steamer's capstan, and a part of the floor planking had to be cut away before the bridge could be swung clear.

At Randolph street bridge a cable got entangled with the screw, and the bridge had to be kept open for about half an hour while this accident was being remedied. It took the City of Bangor from 7:30 p. m. one day to 2:30 p. m. on the day following to get through the Chicago river from the grain elevator to the lake.—Engineering News.

SUMMER GRIP.

A New Form of Influenza Has Made Its Appearance.

If summer grip is not an affliction of this season's invention, it is at least so prevalent that most persons hear of it now for the first time. What is winning it most attention is the fact that it seems to be remarkably contagious. In some cases it has attacked one member of a family after another and has then communicated itself to visitors and spread in their families.

Physicians who have attended such cases tell their patients that it is a result of the peculiar summer we have had, with its many variations of temperature, and especially to the continued cool weather. Its symptoms are much the same as those of the familiar winter grip, including headache, sore throat, fever and pains in the bones. It makes some people sneeze so much that they think they have fallen victims to hay fever till doctors assure them of the contrary.

One peculiarly unpleasant feature of it seems to be the extreme depression of spirits which accompanies it sometimes. Otherwise its attacks involve only temporary discomfort, and they seem to be generally light in character. But as a new feature of summer life it is not pleasant to contemplate.

KLONDIKE NIGHT STICK.

The Most Gorgeous Club Ever Twirled by a Policeman.

Pleasant D. Linville, a special policeman of San Francisco, has the most valuable and artistic billy on the coast. While the guest of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berry, who were celebrating their return from the Klondike, Berry hid the weapon. Linville had carried the stick for 20 years and was grieved to lose it.

A fortnight later he was again dining with his friends. Berry proposed Linville's health, which was drunk, and after puzzling his guest by a eulogistic speech presented to him the old club, now transformed into a thing of beauty. Gold nuggets worth $300, which Mrs. Berry had taken from her own claim in the Klondike, were deeply set around one end of the handle, while a broad band of virgin gold around the other end bore the legend, "From Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry of Klondike to Pleasant D. Linville, as a token of friendship, Sept. 1, 1897."—Exchange.

A BACHELOR'S THOUGHTS.

Wise and Witty Remarks About Men, Women and Children.

Babies probably cry about half the time just for fun.

No girl likes to kiss other girls unless she is very imaginative.

I wonder why, whenever a man talks with a girl he is afraid of, his necktie works up in the back.

Probably every man who doesn't act decent to his friends has an idea that he always tries to love his enemies.

A woman will cry until her eyes get all red and her nose snuffy and then go and kiss her husband, with the idea that she looks beautiful "smiling through her tears."

After awhile the women will get up a movement to have a curfew rung for the men.

The reason why most old bachelors have never married is because they have never asked any girl.

When a girl can't judge a man by the company he keeps, she judges him by the creases in his trousers.

Probably Eve ate the apple because Adam spilled gravy on her best dolly.

A child is said to have finished its education when it begins to think that its parents haven't.

There may be such a thing as a man convinced against his will, but there never was a woman convinced any way at all.

"The governor" sounds respectful enough to the father who is used to hearing his sons call him "the old man."

It is probable that no man ever went down cellar to get a scuttle of coal for his wife without either knocking his head against the swing shelf or getting his hair full of cobwebs off the furnace pipes.—New York Press.

His New Typewriter.

The great author was delivering the climatic speech in his great forthcoming novel to his pretty new typewriter. For as long as ten minutes he went on. The keys on the typewriter rattled merrily, and he stopped once to think that the girl was a hummer.

Suddenly the girl stopped, her face as white as the stack of paper before her.

"What's the matter?" the great author asked.

"I—I"—she began to sob—"I—for—got to put—any—paper in."

A homely spinster is doing our work now.—New York Sunday World.

The Glad Child.

Georgie—Pa, it says in the papers that the snow is 20 feet deep at Klondike. Is that so?

Pa—I guess it is.

Georgie—Jiminy, but I'm glad we don't live there!

Pa—Why?

Georgie—Just think of getting up in the morning and cleaning the sidewalk.—Cleveland Leader.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES WELL PAID.

Recently prepared statistics show that engineers on American roads are paid an average of $3.65 per day, against an average of $1.17 a day on foreign lines; firemen are paid $2.06 per day, against seventy-five cents on foreign lines, and conductors an average of $2.75 per day, against $1.34 on foreign lines. While it is thus shown that the railway employes in this country receive much better wages, the comparison of rates, especially freight rates, is fully as strikingly in favor of the shipper in this country, as, by comparing the rate per ton per mile and the rate per passenger per mile, it is shown that in the United States, it is less by the following percentages:

| Country. | Ton. | Less by | Pass. | Less by |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| United States | 97 | | 2.14 | |
| Scotland | 3.00 | 67 | | |
| Prussia | 1.32 | 26 | 2.19 | 2 |
| Austria | 1.56 | 38 | 3.05 | 30 |
| France | 1.39 | 29 | 3.38 | 36 |
| Belgium | 1.30 | 26 | 3.25 | 34 |
| Eng. Av. | 1.77 | 45 | 2.91 | 26 |

Illustrative passenger runs in the United States and foreign countries show how this country is under foreign countries both in the railway fare and the sleeping car fare. New York to Denver and Paris to Constantinople are 1,937 and 1,875 miles, respectively, requiring sixty-four and sixty-five hours, respectively. calling for $18.75 and $71 fare, $11 and $28 sleeping car fare, making percentage of the United States under foreign rates 31 on railway fare, 60 on sleeper fare, and 40 on total fare. Comparing the run from New York to Omaha and Calais to Brindisi, the distances are 1,400 and 1,380, hours forty-one and fifty-six, fare $32.75 and $66, sleeper fare $7.60 and $26, making the per cent. of the United States under foreign rates 50 on railway fare, 70 on sleeper fare, and 56 on total fare. Taking the run from New York to Chicago, Leipsic to Rome, the distances are 960 and 945, the run twenty-seven and thirty-five hours, the railway fare $20 and $44, sleeper fare $5 and $15, making the per cent. of the United States under foreign rates 54 on railway fare, 67 on sleeper fare and 57 on total fare.

RAISED THEIR WAGES.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 26.—It is announced today that as a Thanksgiving present President George Gould, of the Missouri Pacific railway system, has advanced salaries all along the line 10 per cent. The advance, which will date back from November 1, affects 15,000 employes, and will result in an additional expenditure of $900,000 a year.

The accident was due to a fog and a slippery rail.

Was the Evidence in the Thorn Murder Trial.

Witness Koehne Admits That He Showed the Prisoner a Stiletto With a Poisoned Point—The Testimony.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The jurymen who were selected last Monday and Tuesday to try Martin Thorn, who is charged with the murder of Guldensuppe, resumed their places in the Queens county court room at Long Island City promptly on time today, and a few moments later the accused was brought into court.

The first witness called was the barber, Koehne, whose examination had not been concluded when the court adjourned last Wednesday evening. In reply to Mr. Howe's questions, this witness admitted that the stiletto which he had shown to Thorn had a poisoned point, and he seemed to be very uncomfortable after having made this admission. Then he said he only kept it as an ornament, afterwards explaining that his brother had made him a present of it.

Edward Speck, a bartender, testified to seeing Thorn in the saloon in East Thirty-fourth street on Tuesday, June 29. Thorn was showing a watch to a driver named Fedderer. Thorn had also exhibited some money and said, "This is what I got out of my carriage ride last Saturday."

Carl Merich, who keeps a barber shop, testified that Thorn told him about living with Mrs. Nack and having had a row with another boarder (Guldensuppe), at whom he fired a pistol, but did not intend to hurt him. This row occurred in March or April last. This witness said that he had sent Thorn for a bottle of "shampoo mixture" on Wednesday, June 23.

It will be remembered that according to Police Captain O'Brien the accused man had told him he was in this barber's place on Friday, June 25, the day of the murder. The witness did not see Thorn on Friday, June 25. He had received a letter from Thorn in which the prisoner asked him to say that he was sent for the bottle of shampoo mixture on June 25 and had been in the place the greater part of that Friday. Witness gave the letter to Captain O'Brien the day after Thorn was arrested. Merich identified the letter when it was handed him by the prosecuting lawyer. In answer to Mr. Howe the witness said he had known Thorn for a long time and the prisoner always bore an excellent reputation.

C. E. Jameson Forges Thousands of Dollars of County Warrants.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 26.—C. E. Jameson, arrested at Seattle for forging about $10,000 worth of Chehalis county warrants is well known in Portland. None of the brokers or bankers in Portland knew of any case where Jameson had sold any of his bogus warrants outright. His scheme appeared to have been to use them as collateral security in negotiating a loan for himself. Walter A. Holt, exchange teller at the Wells-Fargo bank has $400 worth of them which he took in exchange for a loan of $250. Mr. Holt declined to give the name of the man who negotiated the loan with him. Aaron H. Macgley, a fourth street broker, has in his possession a Chehalis county warrant dated in 1891, calling for $278, which he believes to be a forgery.

LIFE IN A ROYAL COURT.

Marie Antoinette Describes It in a Letter to Her Mother.

Miss Anna L. Bicknell, author of "Life In the Tuileries Under the Second Empire," contributes an article to The Century on "Marie Antoinette as Dauphine." Miss Bicknell has availed herself of new material from the state papers in Vienna. An interesting document from this source is the following letter written by Marie Antoinette to her mother, Maria Theresa, empress of Austria.

CHOISY, July 12.

MADAME MY VERY DEAR MOTHER:—I cannot express how much I am affected by your kind and tender remembrance, and I protest that I have not yet received one of your dear letters without tears of regret filling my eyes at being parted from such a kind and tender mother, and, though I am very happy here, I should certainly wish to return to see my dear, very dear family, if only for a short time.

We have been here since yesterday, and from 6 o'clock in the afternoon, when we dine, till 1 in the morning we can not return to our own apartments, which is very disagreeable to me. After dinner we have cards till 9 o'clock. Then we go to the play till half past 9, then supper, then cards again till 1 o'clock, some for reward till past 1. Only yesterday the king, seeing that I was tired out, kindly dismissed me at 11, to my very great satisfaction, and I slept very well till half past 9.

Your majesty is very kind to show so much interest in me even to the extent of wishing for an account of how I spend my time habitually. I will say, therefore, that I rise at 10 o'clock or 9 or half past 9, and after dressing I say my prayers. Then I breakfast, after which I go to my aunts', where I usually meet the king. This lasts till half past 11. At 11 I go to have my hair dressed. At noon the "chambre" is called, and my one of sufficient rank may come in. I put on my rouge and wash my hands before everybody. Then the gentlemen go out, the ladies stay, and I dress before them. At 12 is mass. When the king is at Versailles, I go to mass with him and my husband and my aunts. If he is not there, I go with monsieur the dauphin, but always at the same hour. After mass we dine together before everybody, but it is over by half past 1, as we both eat quickly. I then go to monsieur the dauphin. If he is busy, I return to my own apartments, where I read, I write or I work, for I am embroidering a vest for the king, which does not get on quickly, but I trust that, with God's help, it will be finished in a few years (?). At 3 I go to my aunts', where the king usually comes at that time. At 4 the table comes to me. At 5 the master for the harpsichord, or the singing master, till 6. At half past 6 I generally go to my aunts' when I do not go out. You must know that my husband almost always comes with me to my aunts'. At 7, card playing till 9, but when the weather is fine I go out, and then the card playing takes place in my aunts' apartments instead of mine. At 9, supper. When the king is absent, my aunts come to take supper with us. If the king is there, we go to them after supper, and we wait for the king, who comes usually at a quarter before 11, but if he on a large sofa and sleep till his arrival. When he is not expected, we go to bed at 11. Such is my day.

I entreat you, my dear mother, to forgive me if my letter is too long, but my greatest pleasure is to be thus in communication with you my self. I ask pardon also for the blotted letter, but I have had to write two days running at my toilet, having no other time at my disposal, and if I do not answer all questions exactly I trust that your majesty will make allowances for my having too obediently burned your letter. I must finish this, as I have to dress and to go to the king's mass. I have the honor to be your majesty's most submissive daughter. MARIE ANTOINETTE.

THE GOOD LANDLORD.

I sing to you about a man whose memory long should last.
His name was Hiram Morethangood, he lived in Mottoofast,
And when he had to save his native land he never drew a sword
He was what all his tenants called a mighty fine landlord.

Whene'er a tenant chanced to break a pane or two of glass
He never used to storm and rave or murmur out "Alas!"
But he would go and buy some more in sunshine or in rain,
Or if it was at zero, and have them set again.

No matter if a room or hall the paper should get torn
He would not, as some landlords do, complain from night till morn,
And if the paint got scarred and soiled, the first thing he would do
Was send and have the painter come and paint the house anew.

No matter if a faucet froze or if got clogged a drain,
It made no difference to him. He never would complain
And if a tenant short of wood should burn the cellar stairs,
He always thought it sweet delight to make such small repairs.

And if a tenant should neglect to close a swinging blind
And it should be thrown from its place by the fierce winter wind
And tumbling to the walk below some passer-by should kill,
He would not say one unkind word, but go and pay the bill

And ere the morning light broke forth he from his bed would rise,
And not with thunder in his tone nor anger in his eyes,
But with a rosy shade of joy upon his manly face,
Would to the tenant go and give a full deed of the place.

No Flats For Rent.

Young Man—I am to be married in about a month, and I'm looking for a home. What is the rent of these flats?

"Of course."

"Hem! Let me see. Did that grandmother have a daughter?"

"Why, yes."

WORD CONTEST.

One Hundred Dollars in Cash to be Given Away.

Something to Entertain, Interest and Please the Young, the Old and the Middle Aged.

As the winter evenings are drawing nigh, when the young and old folks will have plenty of time for thought and work, we have discovered a little plan for their entertainment and amusement which will handsomely compensate them for the time and pains they may devote to it. We want to know how many words can be made from the letters,

THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL.

Use each letter as desired, but not more times than it appears in "THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL." Verbs, pronouns, adjectives, nouns, adverbs, plurals allowed. Words spelled alike, but having different meanings, count as one word. Use any standard dictionary. All legitimate English words count. Proper nouns, prefixes, suffixes, obsolete and foreign words do not count. Work it out as follows: Tar, tray, hat, her, eat, eel, fail, first, etc., etc.

To the person making the largest list of words from the twenty letters found in THE FORT WAYNE SENTINEL we will pay $50; to the second, $25; to the third, $15; to the fourth, $10.

The words must be written on one side of the sheet and numbered and sent to this office addressed to

WORD EDITOR.

Not later than December 23, 1897, as the contest closes on the evening of that date. Begin now, but do not send in lists till near the close of the contest, as it is desired that all who engage in this competition shall strive earnestly to win the prize.

This is open to every man, woman and child in Fort Wayne, and Allen county and every county adjoining Allen. No other conditions are imposed; it makes no difference whether you are a subscriber to THE SENTINEL or not. All are eligible to enter the contest. Tell your neighbors and friends about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Evans, of Toledo, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Bond

Edward Baltes went to Dayton yesterday, to attend the funeral of a friend.

Miss Mamie Sullivan, of Toledo, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Forbing.

T. J Connell, of Boston, is visiting Patrick Ryan and family, of 118 Barr street.

Attorney L. X. Jacobs, of Van Wert, Ohio, spent Thanksgiving here, the guest of friends.

A. K. Hurst, proprietor of the Globe clothing house, has returned from a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Julia Owen, of New Hartford, Conn., has arrived to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lukens.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a rehearsal of the "New Woman in Congress," the last before the entertainment.

The White family gave an enjoyable musicale at Calvary U. B. church last evening. The entertainment was largely attended.

Messrs. Alex and McLain Seabrease, of Detroit, are in the city the guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Seabrease.

Mrs. Jennie Godwin and daughter of Kendallville, and Mrs. James B. Amden of Grand Rapids, Mich., spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. A. L. Greibel.

The Daughters of Isabella had an enjoyable card party last evening. Miss Tracy Kalbacher won the lady's first prize and Peter Zurbach won the gentleman's first prize.

The Thanksgiving dinner at the Wayne street church was a success. The dinner was excellent and fully sustained the reputation of the ladies. About 100 persons sat down to it and enjoyed it.

Last evening Joseph Gage, of West Main street, very pleasantly entertained a small number of his friends at 6 o'clock dinner. After dinner the evening was enjoyably spent in music and games.

Building permits: Henry Bueter, to erect a store building on lot 148 Hanna's addition, to cost $550; Buckeye Brewing company to erect a store house on the Wabash railway right-of-way, to cost $200.

The Misses Stahl and Bailie celebrated their birthday on Wednesday by giving a dinner to the Bloomingdale teachers. A three course dinner was served and the flowers used for decoration were carnations.

August Beverforden, sr., who has been living with his son, Siegfried Beverforden, at Kansas City, the past seven years, has arrived in Fort Wayne, and will hereafter reside with his daughter, Mrs. Reinkensmeier.

At noon yesterday, a pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Walter B. Wilson, on South Calhoun street, when Miss Clara M. Wilson, a teacher in the Hamilton school, became the bride of Will S. Sheppard. The Rev. Ainslie officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard left for Jackson, Mich., where he has charge of the athletic department of the Y. M. C. A.

The services at the West Creighton avenue Church of Christ last night were very interesting. John J. Higgs, the pastor, preached to a good congregation. He took for his subject, "The Prodigal's Father." Three came forward and confessed their Savior. Tonight Evangelist Coombs will commence his series of sermons on "The Old Gospel Train." Miss Perrin will sing a solo at each service.

At the pie eating contest given by the Indiana Furniture company last evening, the first prize was easily won by Charles Jay Bone, a young man who had evidently fasted several days in anticipation of the event. He was given $5 in gold. Jacob Zuber received the second prize, $2.50. James Merz entered the contest but his chances were hopelessly lost from the start as he had filled up on Thanksgiving turkey. The affair afforded a great deal of amusement to the crowd of spectators. A fine program of music was furnished by the A. O. U. W. band. There were about thirty-five pies left after the contest, which Messrs. Grater and Ruel turned over to the Associated Charities for distribution among the poor.

A Challenge.

The following challenge was sent over a week ago by one of the ministers of the city to Rev. W. Dorris, evangelist, now holding meetings here. In said challenge the Rev. Dorris was asked to affirm in public joint discussion the doctrine of his church so strenously insisted upon by himself every night, namely: "That immersion in earthly water is set forth in the New Testament by the authority and practice of Christ and His apostles as the baptism upon which life and salvation are made to depend."

No response has yet been made either private or public to the above, notwithstanding the Rev. Dorris throws out his challenge every night and declares that he will "pack his grip immediately if any living man can show that he is in error." The fact is easily shown. Will Brother Dorris meet the issue?

Respectfully,

"MUCH WATER."

MISS SOPHIE KRAFT.

At an early hour this morning occurred the death of Miss Sophie Kraft, daughter of Conrad Kraft, of 271 Washington boulevard. Deceased was twenty-three years old. She was to have been wedded last August to William Kleinsorge, but the nuptials had to be postponed on account of her illness. The young people had gone so far as to engage a house and furnish it for their occupancy. Death was caused by diabetes. The deceased was a most amiable and accomplished young lady and her demise will cause widespread sorrow. The funeral will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m., from the residence, and 2 o'clock from Emanuel's Lutheran church.

A HOT OLD TIME.

Statesmen Resort to the Manly Art.

Drive the President of the Reichsrath From the Chamber and Then Indulge in a General Fight.

VIENNA, Nov. 26.—The disorder in the lower house of the reichsrath was so accentuated today that a strong detachment of police had to be called in to preserve order. When the president of the house, Dr. Abrahamovics, entered he was greeted with vociferous shouts of "get out." The leftists rose to their feet in a body, many of the deputies shrieked wildly and an indescribable tumult followed.

During the tumult, a social democrat, Herr Berner, made a rush for the president and a lively fist fight followed between Berner and the house attendants, who attempted to protect the chair.

Thereupon another social democrat, Herr Resel, jumped upon the ministerial bench and, hurrying to the presidential chair, seized the papers which were lying on the president's desk and tore them to pieces, while other social democrats hastened to Herr Berner's assistance, occupied the tribunes and demanded satisfaction for the attendants' pummeling of Herr Berner.

President Abrahamovics was compelled to flee.

Subsequently the social democrats and other deputies indulged in a free fight and Herr Berner was ejected from the house.

In the meantime a detachment of seventy police arrived in the house and the officer in command called upon the social democrats to withdraw from the presidential platform. They, however, refused to withdraw and resisted the attempts of the police to eject them.

They were eventually removed, forcibly and singly. The session of the house, in the meanwhile, was suspended.

Mrs. P. J. DeVitt is lying seriously ill at her home, 31 West Fourth street. Mr. DeVitt, the husband of the lady, is a well known Nickel Plate trainman.

TROUBLE IN SIGHT.

Cloakmakers Become Restless and Threatening.

Prospects for a General Strike of the Employes in That Industry Grow With Each Succeeding Day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—A strike, which involved 200 cloak makers, occurred today at a Delancy street shop. The cause of the strike was a threat alleged to have been made by the employing contractors to reduce wages. This is the first result of the expiration of the peace contracts entered into three months ago between the 800 contractors and 9,000 organized employes in the cloak making industry. According to the agreement these contracts became obsolete today. A series of meetings will be held to outline plans to avert, is possible, a general conflict between employes and employers.

TOWN RUINED.

Chesterfield Upset by a Fearful Explosion.

Eighty Quarts of Nitroglycerine Let Loose, Rocking Houses, Breaking Windows and Terrorizing Citizens.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 26.—Chesterfield, Ind., was almost wiped off the map at an early hour this morning by the explosion of eighty quarts of nitro-glycerine, which had been brought overland from Montpelier and placed in an open field, a half mile from the town.

Marion Massey and Sam Maguire were working at a gas well near by when the explosion occurred. Massey was thrown fifty feet, but was not fatally injured. Maguire was also thrown a hundred feet in the air and badly lacerated, but will recover.

James Gehl's house, 300 rods distant, was torn to pieces. The explosion tore a hole in the ground down to the water line.

A three ton engine was torn to fragments and every animal in the vicinity was killed instantly.

The little town of Chesterfield is a mass of ruins, every house being moved from its foundations, windows shattered, doors smashed in, every light put out and the plastering shaken from the walls. Several people were shaken out of bed.

At Daleville, two miles away, and at Yorktown, five miles distant, the damage was almost as great. Many people were injured and it is a miracle that none were killed outright.

The jar of the explosion was felt for fifteen miles in all directions. The gas in the well was blown out and a workingman named Cooper in lighting it caused another explosion, in which he was fatally burned. The damage cannot be estimated.

RUMORS OF WAR.

France and Great Britain Have a Misunderstanding.

The Seat of the Trouble is West Africa, Near Nigeria Country on the Gold Coast.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung from Rome reports that a sanguinary conflict had taken place between the French and British at Nikki, in the Lagos Hinterland.

London, Nov. 26.—While the appearance of the statement contained in the Rome dispatch to the Frankfort Zeitung, announcing that a conflict has taken place between the French and British troops in the Lagos Hinterland, is doubted, the London morning papers today pointed out the imminent danger resulting from the proximity of the two forces in the contested territory. A conflict between the French and British forces in the Lagos Hinterland has been anticipated for some time past. Both countries have been hurrying troops into the disputed territory. The trouble is of about thirty years standing. In 1878 France and Great Britain opened negotiations for the settlement of their respective frontiers in West Africa and it was decided in substance that French influence and authority should be confined to the north of a certain line and that Great Britain should have a free hand south of this line. The outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war interrupted the negotiations. There was considerable opposition in both countries to the cession of any territory and during the next five years difficulties frequently occurred. Finally it was resolved to appoint commissioners to reconsider the whole matter, and as a result in the course of the next ten years, four separate agreements were concluded.

Later on the fact a rumor was received at the British colonial office to the effect that there had been a collision between the British and French forces at Nakka, which is said to have been captured by the French troops. The officials of the colonial office, however, regard this report as highly improbable as, they explain, the British police in the Hinterland, who are in various limited numbers, had strict orders to avoid any collision with the French. It is also understood that the French forces had been instructed not to come into conflict with the British. The British forces in the Hinterland, it is further stated, are being reinforced considerably.

DEBT IS $1,338,517.

Condition of Russell B. Harrison's Street Railway Enterprises.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 26.—Receiver Jump, of Russell B. Harrison's street railway and electric light company, has filed a report showing the total indebtedness to be $1,338,517, but of this amount $750,000 consists of bonds issued as collateral security for some of the floating indebtedness, which amounts to $325,000. The receiver has not made a report of the inventory of the property, because some of the machinery was partly chased conditionally and is not fully paid for. There is also due the Terre Haute company from Brown to $11,000 from the Michigan City Trolley company, of which Harrison is president, for machinery and supplies taken from here. Most of the bonds are held in New York and other eastern cities.

A BRITISH MOVE.

Want to Land a Cable on the Hawaiian Islands.

Will Give British Control of Telegraph Systems Reaching Around the World.

Special Dispatch to The Sentinel.

New York, Nov. 26.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says:

It is the desire of the British government that the United States shall authorize a British company to land a cable on one of the Hawaiian islands, this cable to connect Canada and Australia. Such authorization is opposed by the French government, on the ground that the laying of a cable with British capital would place Great Britain in control of a telegraphic system reaching around the entire world, and that in the event of war before a message could be transmitted the British government's own word would have to be obtained. In case Great Britian were engaged in hostilities, a diplomat pointed out, it would be practically impossible for France to send a message over any cable which did not pass through British territory, except that which connects France and Cape Cod, Mass.

M. Patenotre has made a representation on the subject to Secretary Sherman, who said he did not think it would make much difference this government could use the cable if it desired and in case of necessity an opposition line could be established. The French officials, however, point out that in case of war between the United States and Great Britain this government would find itself seriously handicapped if the cable were under British control. Information has reached here that a British company interested in the cable enterprise and the consul general of Great Britain in Honolulu are making a determined effort to secure a concession from the Dole authorities to the Cunard Steamship line that the British company be allowed to land a cable.

Mr. Sewall, the diplomatic representative of this government in Hawaii, is wholly opposed to the granting of such permission on the ground that such action would be prejudicial to the interests of his government. It is impossible for the Dole authorities to give permission to lay a cable, on account of the treaty with Japan, which would not put to further blackmail, and with out their consent the high binders will be forced to leave the city or go to work. Over twenty high binder societies are affected by this arrangement. While the exact membership of these societies is not known, it is expected to be in the neighborhood of 40,000. All of these are not fighting men, but they have been affiliated with the Tongs and have been furnished money when occasion demanded it.

Are Preparing to Enter the Alaskan Trade.

Four Steamers are Being Built to Sail to be Used in Bering Waters—Will Establish Trading Stations.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—The Rothschilds, through the San Francisco house of Ladies & Co., are about to enter the Alaska trade. Four steamers are being built in sections by W. H. Work & Co., the owners of the California Machine works. When this contract is fulfilled the machinery and timbers will be sent to Dutch harbor, near Unalaska, to be set up. The firm will then build nine barges in sections to follow the material for steamboat building and the barges will likewise be put together at Dutch Harbor. All of this work is being done for the Alaska Exploration company, which was incorporated about four months ago with a capital of $1,000,000. Isaac Liebes, in speaking of this project said that it is proposed to have the steamers and barges ready for business when the ice breaks in the Yukon in June. He said that the Rothschilds are interested in the venture, which was arranged in London five months ago, and there is practically unlimited capital behind it. Besides doing a general transportation business, the company will establish trading stations and thoroughly explore the country.

DOLLAR WHEAT.

The Bulge Only Temporary and Local in Effect.

Why Was There Not to Cause for Rise in Foreign Markets or the Ed. ...ence Figures.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Wheat sold at $1 about 11:30 today. A bulge started in that option about 10 o'clock which carried it up steadily to $1. It was current talk in the pit that the covering which started the bulge was done by a small bunch of small shorts, as traders known to have out several lines showed no signs of stampeding. The immediate cause of the jump to $1 was the buying of about 250,000 bushels by Cunningham L. Day. After that price was reached, however, the market dropped back very quickly to 97½, but another spasm of covering sent it up again to 98½. December bulls sold heavily on the swell.

Convention of the American Sons of Columbus at Kendallville.

Daughters of Rebekah to Give an Entertainment—News of Various Fraternal Organizations in Session.

The American Sons of Columbus, which had its birth in this city, recently held a national convention at Kendallville, Ind., in conjunction with the American Daughters of Isabella. In an exhaustive account of the event the Daily Constitution-Democrat, of Kendallville, says:

The special meeting of the national officers and delegates of the American Sons of Columbus and the Daughters of Isabella, the auxiliary order, is at an end, and those who attended the sessions here gone home or are preparing to do so.

The meeting, according to one high in a fraternity among the best, has been the most important in the history of the order. Number of very essential changes have been made in the constitution, which have put the organization on a firmer and yet more practical business basis. The principal officers and the committees

FRANK W. DAVIS,
Grand Admiral of the American Sons of Columbus.

fair to stress during the past year. But these did not wholly satisfy the men who have the good of the order at heart.

"Accordingly plans for the betterment of the order were discussed and the action of this meeting was the result.

"One of the changes provides for a corps of organizers, who will work under the personal supervision of the grand admiral. These will go out from every colony and the system will insure the rapid growth of the order.

"The working laws of the constitution have been so arranged that they apply more particularly than before to the local colonies, thus doing away almost altogether with local by laws.

"The grand officers, by another change, are to become incumbent at once after election. The date of the annual convention was changed from October to June.

"Under these changes and with the new system," said the officer of the order who explained the situation for the Constitution-Democrat, "the prospects are that the Sons of Columbus will become a leader of its class. The perfect harmony with which the convention acted is remarkable, every member working for the good of the order alone."

"The delegates tendered a vote of thanks to the Kendall colony and court and the press for the reception and kind attention received from them.

"The meetings of the daughters of Isabella were also important. Several changes in the constitution were made, which, like the changes of the sons, have all in view the betterment of the order. The next meeting will be held in Chicago, at the time of the world's fair."

SUGAR BEETS

Much Greater Product Than Was the Case Last Season.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 26.—The government experiment station at Purdue university has found at Hinkel stark county, a sugar beet grown from seed and under working directions furnished by the station, which yielded 20.3 per cent of sugar and had a purity coefficient of 85.5. This is the best sugar beet ever raised in Indiana. The yield to an acre of washed and trimmed beets was fourteen tons.

Fort Wayne Ends the Season With a Victory.

Rain and Mud Had No Terrors for Fast Ball Players—Shamrocks Beat the Favorite—Scattered News Items.

Thanksgiving day is the one red letter day around local ball playing. So thought the players in Fort Wayne when they repaired to Lakeside park in a drizzling rain yesterday afternoon, followed by a large crowd of enthusiastic fans. There was mud and plenty of it, but it was soft and made a cushion for the players to fall quietly upon some of them frequently managed to do.

The Huntington team outweighs the home players, but Johnson's clever pencil tells the story concisely.

Fort Wayne kicked off to East, who was downed in her yards. Fort Wayne took the ball an advanced it steadily into Huntington's home territory. Fleming made a superb line, and several touchdowns followed. Score, 6 to 0.

Huntington kicked off to Fleming, who made a run of fifteen yards. Steady advances were again made in Huntington territory, and the ball was carried over the goal line. Bradley kicked goal. Score, 12 to 0.

Gast took the ball from Fleming, and got over the goal line. It was a fluke, and should not have been allowed, but Huntington threatened to leave, so the touchdown was counted. No goal. Score, 16 to 0.

SECOND HALF.

Huntington kicked off, and after some punishing playing the ball was punted back, and then steadily advanced towards Huntington's goal line. Near the end of the half, after some slow work, Hess made a run around the right end and went down. Fleming took the ball across line for a touchdown. Bradley kicked goal. Score, 16 to 6.

SUMMARY: E, MOSEBY TOUCHES, 0

The Shamrocks and Robert Emmetts indulged in a rattling mix up. The game was played under the Gaelic Athletic association rules. Ed O'Leary captained the Emmetts, and on his team were athletes who had played the Irish game in many a stubbornly contested battle. The Shamrocks were composed almost exclusively of members of the Hibernian Rifles, and were under the captaincy of Con Dowdy. Two evening one-half hour halls were played. Morse, for the Shamrocks, played a great game, scoring five of the six points made by his team, Ed Ryan making the other point. The work of Hogan, Duffy, Muldoon and Graney, for the Shamrocks, was fast. For the Robert Emmetts Ed Cleary, D. Cleary, Dunn Cummings and J. Foley put up the best game. The Shamrocks won the game by good spurting. Both teams are anxious for another go at each other and a game will probably be pulled off in the near future.

FOOTBALL NEWS NOTES.

A SLAVE TO DRINK.

Mrs. Reynolds in Court Under an Assumed Name.

Sad Example of the Kobs Wrought by Rum—Town Jottings—Still on Suspicion—Other Police News.

A woman answering to the name of Maud Wilson was arraigned before Mayor Scherer this morning for intoxication. Officer Paul testified that she was helplessly drunk when he was summoned to where she was lying on the sidewalk on West Berry street, near Calhoun, yesterday. She pleaded guilty and was fined $1 and costs. The court gained the woman but as it was her second offense he could not pass the case by. This is indeed a sad example of the wretchedness brought on by rum. For here is a woman against whom the officers have no hard report save her weakness for drink. After imbibing a few drinks she becomes utterly helpless. The mayor was informed that the woman's right name is Mrs. Roy Webb and that she lives on River street. Her husband is living but he did not appear in his wife's behalf this morning and she left with an officer to try and raise the money to pay her fine as the keepers of a jail seemed more than she could face.

BELIEVED TO BE DEAD.

Andrew Jones, a youth just developing into rough manhood, was arrested by Detectives Detective Bergman, at the east yards, this morning. He was discovered in a car of merchandise that had been broken into and, although no goods are reported missing, he is thought to be guilty of evil intent. He told an unlikely story to the mayor of his past life and was sent to jail, pending an investigation.

NOTES.

Michael Quinn, for drunkenness, went over for eleven days.

FATAL FALL.

Walter Hess, of This City, Meets Death at Omaha.

Police Endeavoring to Locate His Relatives—Mrs. J. H. Rinkard Injured—Charges of Accidents.

Superintendent of Police Geseline this morning received a telegram stating that Walter Hess, of Fort Wayne, while working on a high building, went down with a scaffold and received fatal injuries. The telegram stated that the man was dying and asked that relatives who lived in South Wayne, be notified. The directory failed to enlighten the superintendent, and he reported the matter to the various policemen, instructing them to inquire after anybody of that name.

A LADY INJURED.

Mrs. Joel H. Rinkard, of No. 79 West Third street, fell on the car step walk at her home Wednesday evening and sustained severe injuries. Her left knee came in contact with the sharp edge of a brick, displacing the knee cap and lacerating the flesh badly. She is unable to walk.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Henry Schwartz, a student of the Concordia college, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. He was coming down one of the stairs in the college building, when he slipped and fell headlong down the entire flight of stairs. He was picked up unconscious with a deep gash in his forehead, from which the blood flowed freely. Dr. H. A. Downding was called and sewed up the wound. He pronounced the injury painful, though not dangerous to the young man's life.

The young ladies are working hard for the success of the fair, and their efforts are being rewarded. Several contests have been started all of which command a lively interest. Excellent music is in attendance.

THE A. O. U. W. FAIR.

A Very Large Crowd Present Last Evening—The Contests.

Interest grows in the A. O. U. W. fair, at the White bank hall. The attendance last night was the largest since the opening, new interest during the last two days. The features were attractive and all enjoyed themselves. A novel feature was the cake walk, in which twenty-five persons participated and in which Scott Conover was victorious. Another contest will occur tonight.

The voting contests are very spirited, especially the ones for the lunger, the bicycle and the parlor cabinet. In the lunger contest in entered County Surveyor Wheeler, of the legion, and George F. Sorge, of Wells street, who has a very enthusiastic acquaintance. They are behind to win and the race will be a pretty one. For the bicycle there are six or eight entered. Misses Flora Ege and Anna Kruse and Anna Rieck are the contestants for the parlor cabinet. They are all hard at work and will be the best. For the par-

For the cutest the contestants are: Miss Jennie Polley and Mrs. Del Schair and the contest will be exciting, for the contestants are both well known.

Miss Bertha Beckham held the winning admission coupon and was given a handsome picture.

The Filbeck quartet, composed of Messrs. Harry B. Meserole, Jesse Beesley, Albert Crawford and J. D. Dull, were present again and surprised all by the manner in which they rendered several selections.

This is the second of the suits growing out of the accident in Lakeside last summer whereby four men employed by the waterworks department lost their lives by the caving in of a trench. The plaintiff is represented by the Leonard brothers, attorneys, and the city by City Attorney Shambaugh and Attorney Henry Colerick. Mrs. Christie a husband was killed in the accident and this is the basis of the suit. In the first of the suits Fred Mrs. Catherine Dennis was awarded $2,500 by the jury.

APPEARANCE QUALIFY.

This morning Messrs. Herman Schmelzer, H. C. Rockhill and B. F. McQuinton, appointed to appraise the value of the Fort Wayne and Little River toll road, met at the court house and qualified for their duties. They took possession of the survey made two years ago together with the books of the company and proceeded at once to make an examination of them. It was the intention to inspect the road this afternoon if the weather permitted. It is believed that the appraisers will be ready to make a report in the early part of the coming week.

THE Austrian reichsrath seems to have absorbed a deal of inspiration from the game of foot ball as it is played in America.

THERE is no higher authority up- on the necessity of a curfew law than the police of Fort Wayne. To a man they will subscribe to the moral benefits of such a measure.

LIEUT. PEARY, of Washington, has presented a life-sized portrait of his father, Frederick Douglass, to the Bowdoin Grammar school for Girls in Boston, and it has been hung in the main school room. It is said to be the first portrait of an American negro ever hung in a school house in the north.

AMERICUS LIVINGSTON once received a letter asking for a "sentiment" and his autograph. He replied: "Dear Madam: When you ask from a stranger that which is of interest only to yourself, always enclose a stamp. Thanks your sentiment, and here's my autograph.—A. Lincoln."

THE discovery has just been made that through an innocent looking amendment passed by the republican legislature last winter the anti-trust law of Illinois has been practically annulled. To anyone who watched the course of the Illinois assembly this will be the source of no surprise.

GOVERNOR BRADY, of Kentucky, more than a half century ago had a wild son who was convicted of murder in that state. The governor promptly pardoned his son and he disappeared. That son is now the most eloquent preacher to the Hawaiian Islands. He knows the language perfectly and his greatest sermons are preached in it.

PROF. THEODORE MOMMSEN is credited with bringing about much of the recent troubles in Austro Hungary by his fiery writings. He is eighty years of age and of a very dissatisfied mien. In 1870 he was known, for his hatred of France, as the "Franzosen fresser," or eater of Frenchmen. His hate of Bismarck is a religion with him, and he once challenged the "Iron Chancellor" to mortal combat on the field of honor.

AMERICAN insurance companies seem to have been the heaviest sufferers by the recent fires in London and Melbourne. This is compliimentary to the enterprise of the American corporations and shows the confidence reposed in them by their foreign patrons. But if American companies issue policies in foreign countries they ought to insure on American methods in handling fires. Just at present British fire departments seem to be far behind the times.

AT THE time for assembling congress approaches the clearer it becomes that there is to be a republican assault all along the line on the civil service laws. From all that appears the foes of the laws are well organized and embrace in their ranks some of the ablest of the republican leaders. There is some fear by the opponents of the law that the democrats will unite with the republican friends of the merit system and defeat the plans of the spoilsmen by preventing any action on the subject. With this possibility in view a caucus of the republicans will be called and an attempt made to commit the entire republican side of the house to the scheme by strict rules of party government.

VANDERBILT is intent upon making the most of his natural resources. Within the last few weeks many concessions have been made to American capitalists to work mines, asphalt deposits and lumber tracts, and of this sort of thing continuous it will not be long before Americans will virtually control the country. Such a result would be the best thing that could possibly happen to the Venezuelans. They are not possessed of sufficient enterprise to make the most of the resources, and Yankee hustlers are needed to turn the wealth into cold cash.

SIR BOYLE ROCHE is best known to fame as the man who smelt a rat, as he was floating in the air and supped him in the bud, but a writer in the current Cornhill has unearthed some less familiar bulls from the same eminent source. For example, discussing on the relations between England and Ireland, Sir Boyle declared that "he is an enemy to both kingdoms who wishes to diminish the brotherly affections of the two sister countries." This is, however, no better than the benevolent wish of the governor of Georgia in his speech at the last Atlanta exposition, that the occasion might be an enticing wedge which would bring about a more perfect unity between north and south.

UNITED STATES Indian Agent Wanous and Judge Williams, M. Springer, of Muscogee, have decided upon a plan to suppress the liquor traffic in the Indian territory, which is believed to be the only practical solution of the question. The Indian policemen have been instructed to arrest not only all persons found dispensing intoxicating liquors in the Indian territory, but all persons who are found intoxicated or in possession of intoxicating liquors, and turn such persons over to the United States marshals, to be dealt with according to law. Judge Springer has ruled that any persons thus arrested will be required to tell from whom they purchased the liquors, under penalty of being declared in contempt of court if they refuse to do so, and as the liquor law in force in the Indian territory presumes that all persons found in possession of liquor introduced the same, such parties will be required to prove from whom they purchased the liquors or suffer the penalty for introducing the same, which is not less than sixty days in the jail and $100 fine. It is believed that this will do away with bootlegging in the Indian territory.

ACCUSES PULLMAN PORTER

C. H. Hill, a Broker, Says Ear Rings Were Stolen by Porter.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—Lee Pitts, a negro Pullman porter, living in this city, is a prisoner at the four courts on the charge of attempted robbery. A. R. Hill, a broker, of Providence, R. I., alleges that Pitts tried to steal from his pocket an envelope containing $30, 000 in certified checks and $3,000 in cash. Broker Hill was a passenger on the Baltimore and Ohio train which arrived in St. Louis from the east yesterday. As soon as the train reached the union station he caused the arrest of Pitts. At the four courts Mr. Hill related this story:

"Just after the train passed this ill., yesterday morning the porter pulled the curtains aside and reached into my berth. He took $40 out of my trousers pockets and then thrust his hand into my inside coat pocket, where I had an envelope containing $42,000 in cash and checks. I awoke just in time to save the envelope. I grappled with the negro, and the commotion attracted the attention of the Pullman conductor, J. B. Hedges. He ordered the negro to return the $40 he had taken."

Mr. Hill is the owner of several local and non-resident banks at Joplin, and he was on his way there. He says he will remain in St. Louis long enough to push the prosecution.

W. H. Bates of Winchester, the grand chief of the Knights of the Golden Eagle is expected to be on the city next Tuesday evening that the Lodge meeting will be held that evening. ## A HEALTHY WIFE

In a Husband's Inspiration.

A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a danger to all joyousness in the home.

I sometimes marvel at the patience of some husbands.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging and that everything tires her, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams, and that she often wishes herself dead, she should go immediately in the right with a feeling of confession and alarm, she must at once regain her strength.

It matters not where she lives, she can write a letter. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will reply promptly and without charge. The following shows the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, accompanied with a letter of advice:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, I felt new strength and flesh and have better health than I have had for the past two years. I shall recommend you to all I can, for I believe it had a full trial, and I owe to you."—Miss F. S. Everett, Washington, Kans.

initiatory work every meeting in the near future and all the members are requested to be in attendance at our next meeting as several applications are to be acted upon. The faithful workers begin to feel that they have not labored in vain for success will be theirs. The instructions the newly made members receive when taking the obligation are elevating and ennobling in all their requirements. They look a remembrance of the widow and orphan, the afflicted and unemployed; also teach the uplifting of all mankind with the base fallen the victims of their own recklessness and misconduct of man should be more rapidly enforced that we could be more on an equality in this life, as in the life to come. Be as a union in all our good works.

THE ORDER OF FRATERNITY.

Perrilean camp of the Fraternity is arranging for a special meeting to be held December 15. A very interesting program is being prepared.

G. U. R.

Anthony Wayne Post will nominate officers on Friday evening, December 3d.

Rose B. Rose Post will nominate officers this evening.

I. O. O. F.

Fort Wayne Encampment, No. 152, will nominate officers this evening and other important business will be transacted.

Canton Fort Wayne, No. 17, will have an important meeting on December 7th.

DAUGHTERS OF WORKMEN.

The supper and entertainment given by this order last Tuesday evening was largely attended and highly appreciated. The entertainment is thought to be the best ever given by the lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Hetrick were the winners in the cake walk. The festivities were closed with dancing.

SONS OF VETERANS.

The Ladies' Aid society No. 19, S. of V., is in a prosperous condition. The last meeting night two candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the society and several applications were received. An entertainment and social hop will be given on Thursday evening December 2, at True Blue hall at which we will be glad to meet our friends and their friends. A good orchestra has been arranged for the occasion and the best talent that can be got for the numbers on the program. Our society is composed mostly of young people and the long winter evenings will be spent together on such occasions.

I. O. O. F.

Enoch Berachah lodge No. 61, independent Order Bnai Brith, had a well attended meeting last Sunday evening. Business of importance was promptly attended to. Officers for the ensuing year were put in nomination and the election will take place on Sunday, Dec. 19. This lodge is making preparations now to entertain the district grand lodge, which will meet here in May next. This grand lodge meeting here will be the most important event in the history of this lodge, as it will bring from 1 to 3 only the delegates from the different lodges of this district, but also some of the brightest lights of Judaism of America.

K. OF P.

Fort Wayne lodge No. 213, K. of P., had a most interesting and well attended meeting last Friday evening. Matters of great importance to the lodge came up for action and the discussion was participated in by many of the members and also the visiting brothers. As soon as the new elevator will be in running order, which is expected to be about the 15th of next month, a lively time is anticipated for Fort Wayne lodge No. 213. A number of candidates are expected to be initiated in to the ranks of Knighthood, also some entertainments and banquets are on the program. All of our members are invited to attend Phoenix lodge, No. 193, next Monday evening, when our brother, Hon. James M. Robinson, will deliver an address on "Perfection."

FRATERNAL MYSTIC CIRCLE.

The National Fraternal congress is composed of delegates from almost all of what are termed the beneficial orders of America. Its usefulness has been fully demonstrated in procuring proper legislation in most of the states for the government of such orders and in gathering and presenting statistics as well as determining what is the best basis for their perpetuity. The interest and attendance has never been greater than during the past three years. The future session will, beyond doubt, prove most helpful to the cause of fraternalism throughout the country.

The Fraternal Mystic Circle, years ago, became a member of the congress and Mr. D. E. Stevens has attended each session as one of its representatives. For many years he has been a member of the committee on statistics, which is one of the most important committees of the congress, which has done so much for the education of the members of the different orders as to the requirements for safety and permanency.

At the election of Mr. Stevens to the office of vice president will therefore prove most gratifying to his host of friends. This election, according to precedent, will make him president of the congress next year.

The local branch of the Fraternal Mystic Circle, known as Fort Wayne ruling No. 442, will in the near future extend an urgent invitation to Mr. Stevens to deliver an address to the members of the beneficial orders in the city of Fort Wayne. Mr. Stevens is one of the best posted men on fraternal life insurance in the country and the leaders of the various orders have time and again acknowledged him as authority on matters pertaining to such.

Inasmuch as the subject of this sketch is a very busy man, being much in demand, our ruling will be extremely fortunate if we can secure him to come here. Our main hope lies in the fact that he has frequently expressed a little partiality for Fort Wayne ruling.

HE WAS THE PUBLIC.

And Also Cooper and His Acquaintance as Long Sleeve.

When the train reached Valley City, which consisted of a single house and a shanty depot, we saw a man mounted on a barrel under a tree and evidently making an address to a man sitting on the ground before him. The address was delivered as we drew up and a moment later our train backed the train. Some one asked him what sort of a performance had been going on and he replied:

"Why, I came over here to address the people of Cooper county on the benefits of opening up the Star river to navigation and have been speaking for the last two hours."

"But we didn't see any crowd around."

"No, you didn't. No, this isn't much of a county for a crowd. You saw the man on the grass, didn't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, he was all the crowd and the way he took me by the hand and pressed my humble effort makes me feel proud. He sent it was the best speech of the kind he ever listened to."

"You don't mean to say you got off a two hour speech to that one man and he an old duffer at that?" exclaimed one of the crowd.

"That's what I did, sir," replied the orator, "and I think I carried my point. I think I made him will help Dave county to get the Star river opened to navigation."

"But Cooper, after whom the county was named—"

"Well"

"Well, he's the only man in the county. He owns every foot of the land and 70 miles of the river. What he says goes. I called a public meeting, assembled him, addressed him and resolved and voted all long river isn't opened to navigation before snow flies I'm no prophet."—Detroit Free Press.

BOAT BLOCKED A RIVER.

A Big Steamer Made Trouble in a Chicago Waterway.

A block in the Chicago river was caused recently by the steamer City of Bangor which was coming out from Buffalo with a cargo of 150,000 bushels of corn. This is one of the largest boats which came into the river, being 343 feet long and 44 feet beam and drawing 19 feet 4 inches aft and 17 feet 1 inch forward with her cargo, so that the bow was in the mud nearly all the time.

The vessel grounded opposite Polk street for four hours, keeping the bridge open all that time, and then it grounded over the Washington street bridge, swinging between the piers, so that traffic was carried on until the tugs got the vessel off, but in opening the bridge the floor jammed on the steamer's cupolas, and a part of the floor planking had to be cut away before the bridge could be opened to traffic.

At Randolph street bridge a cable got entangled with the screw, and the bridge had to be kept open for about half an hour while this accident was being remedied. It took the City of Bangor from 2:30 p. m. one day to 2:30 p. m. on the following day to get the way of the Chicago river from the grain elevator to the lake.—Engineering News.

SUMMER GRIP.

A New Figure of Speech Has Been Made to Appear.

If summer grip is not an affection of this season's invention, it is at least an prevalent that most persons hear of it now for the first time. What is striking is the novel attention in the fact that it seems to be remarkably contagious. In some cases it has attacked one person in a family after another and has then communicated itself to visitors and spread in their families.

Physicians who have attended such cases tell us it patients that it is a result of the peculiarities of the weather, with its many variations of temperature, and especially to the continued cool weather. Its symptoms are much the same as those of the familiar winter grip, including headache, sore throat, fever and pains in the joints. It makes some people miserable so much that they think they have fallen victims to her fever till doctors assure them of the contrary.

One peculiarly unpleasant feature of it seems to be the extreme depression of spirits which accompanies the disease. Otherwise its attacks involve only temporary discomfort, and they seem to be generally light in character. But as a new feature of summer life it is not pleasant to contemplate.

KLONDIKE NIGHT STICK.

The Most Gorgeous Club Ever Twisted by a Policeman.

Pleasant D. Linville, a special policeman of San Francisco, has the novel distinction of being actually on the event. While the guard of honor of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berry, who were celebrating their return from the Klondike, Berry fell the weapon. Linville had carried the stick for 20 years and was grieved to lose it.

A few days later he was again dining with his friends, Berry prepared Linville's health, which was drunk, and after passing his guest by a complimentary speech presented to him the old club, now transformed into a thing of beauty. It is said to be worth $500, which Mrs. Berry had taken from her own claim in the Klondike, were despite not around one end of the handle while a broad band of virgin gold around the other and bore the legend: "From Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry of Klondike to Pleasant D. Linville, token of friendship. Sept. 1, 1897."—Exchange.

A BACHELOR'S THOUGHTS.

Wise and Witty Remarks About Men, Women and Children.

Babies probably cry about half the time just for fun.

No girl likes to kiss other girls unless she is very imaginative.

I wonder why, whenever a man talks with a girl he is afraid of, his necktop works up in the back.

Probably every man who doesn't get down to his friends has an idea that he also is true to love his enemies.

A woman will cry until her eyes get all red and her nose snuffy and then go and kiss her husband, with the idea that she looks beautiful "making up" to her lover.

After awhile the woman will get up a movement to have a curfew rung for the men.

The reason why most old bachelors have never married is because they have never asked any girl.

When a girl can't judge a man by the company he keeps, she judges him by the crowds in the streets.

Probably Eve ate the apple because Adam spelled gravy on her beat daily.

A child is said to have finished its education when it begins to think that his parents have.

There may be such a thing as a man convinced against his will, but there never was a woman convinced any way at all.

"The governed" needs respectful consent to the father who is used to hearing his sons call him "the old man."

It is probable that no man ever went down a valley to get a mountain view but his wife followed him to the mountain and stood against the sunset shaft of morning the last faithful reminder of the human types.—New York Press.

HIS NEW TYPEWRITER.

The great author was discussing the climatic effects on his style. "I never can write anywhere but in my typewriter. For as long as we are natural to the world on the type on the typewriter rattled merrily, and he stopped once to think that the girl was a scamper.

Suddenly the girl stopped her fare as white as the sheet of paper before her.

"What's the matter?" the great author asked.

"I—I"—she began to write—"I—I've—got to put—my—paper in."

A homely spinster is doing our work now.—New York Sunday World.

The Cold Cure.

Georgie—Pa, it says in the papers that the snow is 20 feet deep at Klondike. Is that so?

Pa—I guess it is.

Georgie—Jimmy but I'm glad we don't live there!

Pa—Why?

Georgie—Just think of sitting up to the normal and cleaning the sidewalk.—Cleveland Leader.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES WELL PAID.

Recently prepared statistics show that engineers on American roads are paid an average of $1.65 per day, against an average of $1.17 a day on foreign lines; firemen are paid $1.06 per day, against seventy-five cents on foreign lines, and conductors an average of $2.75 per day, against $1.34 on foreign lines. While it is thus shown that the railway employes in this country receive much better wages, the comparison of rates, especially freight rates, is fully as strikingly in favor of the shipper in this country, as, by comparing the rate per ton per mile and the rate per passenger per mile, it is shown that in the United States, it is less by the following percentages:

| Country. | Per Ton. | Per Passenger. |
|---|---|---|
| United States | 0% | 0% |
| England | 82 | 50 |
| France | 150 | 100 |
| Belgium | 150 | 100 |
| Germany | 175 | 125 |
| Austria | 200 | 150 |
| Belgium | 175 | 125 |
| Italy | 175 | 125 |

Illustrative passenger rates in the United States and foreign countries show how this country is under foreign countries both in the rail way fare and the sleeping car fare. New York to Denver and Paris to Constantinople are 1,937 and 1,875 miles, respectively, requiring sixty-four and sixty-five hours, respectively, calling for $16.75 and $71 fare, $11 and $28 sleeping car fare, making percentage of the United States under foreign rates 30 on railway fare, 60 on sleeper fare, and 40 on total fare. Comparing the run from New York to Omaha and Calais to Brindisi, the distances are 1,400 and 1,200, hours forty-one and fifty-six, fare $22.75 and $46, sleeper fare $7.50 and $28, making the per cent. of the United States under foreign rates 50 on railway fare, 70 on sleeper fare, and 56 on total fare. Taking the run from New York to Chicago, Leguic to Rome, the distances are 960 and 943, the run twenty-seven and thirty-five hours, the railway fare $20 and $14, sleeper fare $5 and $15, making the per cent. of the United States under foreign rates 44 on railway fare, 67 on sleeper fare and 57 on total fare.

RAISED THEIR WAGES.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—It was announced today that as a Thanksgiving present President George Gould, of the Missouri Pacific railway system, has advanced salaries all along the line 10 per cent. The advance, which will date back from November 1, affects 18,000 employes, and will result in an additional expenditure of $900,000 a year.

This enterprise was supposed to be defunct, but it seems to have been only lying in a dormant condition. It is proposed to borrow money with which to equip the line.

On Sunday a number of passenger train crews were pressed into freight service.

On account of the urgent demand for car wheels, that portion of the foundry was in operation all day yesterday with a full complement of workmen.

The accident was due to a flag and a slippery rail.

Was the Evidence in the Thorn Murder Trial.

Witness Rankine Admits That He Showed the Prisoner a Bullet With a Piece of Pearl—The Testimony.

New York, Nov. 26.—The jurymen who were selected last Monday and Tuesday to try Martin Thorn, who is charged with the murder of Guldensuppe, resumed their places in the Queens county court room at Long Island City promptly on time today, and a few moments later the accused was brought into court.

The first witness called was the barber, Kushne, whose examination had not been concluded when the court adjourned last Wednesday evening. In reply to Mr. Howe a question, this witness admitted that the stiletto which he had shown to Thorn had a pearled point, and he seemed to be very uncomfortable after having made this admission. Then he said he only kept it as an ornament, afterwards explaining that his brother had made him a present of it.

Edward Spack, a bartender, testified to seeing Thorn in the saloon in East Thirty fourth street on Tuesday, June 29. Thorn was showing a watch to a driver named Feldherr. Thorn had also exhibited some money and said, "This is what I got out of my carriage ride last Saturday."

Carl Mensch, who keeps a barber shop, testified that Thorn told him about living with Mrs. Nack and having had a row with another boarder (Guldensuppe), at which he fired a pistol, but did not intend to hurt him. This row occurred in March or April last. The witness said that he had sent Thorn for a bottle of "shampoo mixture" on Wednesday, June 23.

It will be remembered that according to Police Captain O'Brien the accused man had told him he was in this barber's place on Friday, June 25, the day of the murder. The witness did not see Thorn on Friday, June 25. He had received a letter from Thorn in which the prisoner asked him to say that he was sent for the bottle of shampoo mixture on June 24 and had been in the place the greater part of that Friday. Witness gave the letter to Captain O'Brien the day after Thorn was arrested. Mensch identified the letter when it was handed him by the prosecuting lawyer. In answer to Mr. Howe the witness said he had known Thorn for a long time and the prisoner always bore an excellent reputation.

C. E. Jameson Escapes Thousands of Dollars of County Warrants.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 26.—C. E. Jameson, arrested at Seattle for forging about $40,000 worth of Chehalis county warrants is well known in Portland. None of the bankers or brokers in Portland knew of any case where Jameson had sold any of the bogus warrants outright. His scheme appeared to have been to use them as collateral security in negotiating a loan for himself. Walter A. Holt, exchange teller at the Wells Fargo bank has $40 worth of them which he took in exchange for a loan of $250. Mr. Holt declined to give the name of the man who negotiated the loan with him. Aaron H. Mangley, a fourth street broker, has in his possession a Chehalis county warrant dated in 1891, calling for $75.8, which he believes to be a forgery.

LIFE IN A ROYAL COURT.

Marie Antoinette Describes It in a Letter to Her Mother.

Miss Anna L. Bickell, author of "Life In the Tuileries Under the Second Empire," contributes an article to The Century on Marie Antoinette as Dauphiness. Miss Bickell has availed herself of new material from the state papers in Vienna. An interesting document from this source is the following letter written by Marie Antoinette to her mother, Maria Theresa, empress of Austria.

Vienna, July 17.

Madame My Very Dear Mother: I have received your letter of the 4th, which has afforded me very great pleasure, as it has been a long time since I have had any news from you. I am very glad to be able to write to you today, and a few moments later the steward was brought into court.

The first witness called was the barber, Kushne, whose examination had not been concluded when the court adjourned last Wednesday evening. In reply to Mr. Howe a question, this witness admitted that the stiletto which he had shown to Thorn had a pearled point, and he seemed to be very uncomfortable after having made this admission. A Challenge.

The following challenge was sent over a week ago by one of the ministers of the city to Rev. W. Burns, evangelist, now holding meetings here. In said challenge the Rev. Burns was asked to affirm in public joint discussion the doctrine of his church as erroneously insisted upon by himself every night, namely: "That immersion in earthly water is set forth in the New Testament by the authority and practice of Christ and His apostles as the baptism upon which life and salvation are made to depend."

No response has yet been made either private or public to the above, notwithstanding the Rev. Burns throws out his challenge every night and declares that he will pack his grip immediately if any living man can show that he is in error." The fact is easily shown. Will Brother Burns meet the issue? Respectfully,

A HOT OLD TIME.

Statesmen Resort to the Manly Art.

Before the President of the Reichstag Breaks the Chamber and Then Indulges in a General Fight.

Vienna, Nov. 26.—The disorder in the lower house of the reichsrath was so accentuated today that a strong detachment of police had to be called in to preserve order. When the president of the house, Dr. Abrahamowicz, entered he was greeted with vociferous shouts of "get out." The leftists rose to their feet in a body, many of the deputies shrieked wildly and an indescribable tumult followed.

During the tumult, a social democrat, Herr Benner, made a rush for the president and a lively fist fight followed between Benner and the house attendants, who attempted to protect the chief.

Thereupon another social democrat, Herr Resel, jumped upon the ministerial bench and, hurrying to the presidential chair, seized the papers which were lying on the president's desk and tore them to pieces, while other social democrats hastened to Herr Benner's assistance, corrupted the schmuss and demanded satisfaction for the attendants pummeling of Herr Benner.

President Abrahamowicz was finally called to order.

Subsequently the social democrats and other deputies indulged in a free fight and Herr Benner was ejected from the house.

In the meantime a detachment of security police arrived in the house and the officer in command called upon the social democrats to withdraw from the presidential platform. They, however, refused to withdraw and resisted the attempts of the police to eject them.

They were eventually removed, forcibly and stagily. The session of the house, in the meanwhile, was suspended.

TROUBLE IN SIGHT.

Cloakmakers Become Restless and Threatening.

Preparations for a General Strike of the Employees in That Industry Seem Rife with Threatening Ones.

New York, Nov. 26.—A strike, which involved 200 cloak makers, occurred today at a Delancy street shop. The cause of the strike was a threat alleged to have been made by the employing contractors to reduce wages. This is the first result of the operation of the peace contracts entered into three months ago between the 900 contract as and 1,000 organized employes in the cloak making industry. According to the agreement these contracts became absolute today. A series of meetings will be held to outline plans to avert, as possible, a general conflict between employers and employers.
